15 DAY FLY, STAY & CRUISE | VENICE, TURKEY & GREEK ISLANDS CRUISE

THE ITINERARY

Day 6 Olympia (Katakolon), Greece - Docked 8:00am-4:30pm

This small port on the Ionian coast is your gateway to ancient Olympia, the home of the original Olympic Games.

Olympia has preserved both athletic and mythological monuments, many dating back to 776 BC. Most intriguing is the stadium, which is still standing, and the gymnasium. The museum also offers a peek at fabulous Greek sculptures (museum entry additional).

This Grecian port city is also the gateway to one of the most important archeological sites in the world, the ruins of ancient Olympia (shore excursions are not included in tour cost and can be booked directly with the cruise line).

Overnight: Celebrity Cruises 'Celebrity Constellation' ship

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch;Dinner

Day 7 Santorini, Greece - Tendered 9:00am-8:00pm

(Please note: For departures on the 7th of July, itineraries for Day 7 and Day 10 have switched)

Santorini is one of the world's most popular islands, known best for its dramatic scenery, whitewashed villages and fiery volcanic activity. Here adventure bubbles above the Aegean Sea in the boldest and breathtaking ways.

As an optional tour (bookable directly with the cruise line), take a short trip to the island of Nea Kameni for a dip in its famous hot springs. The warm dark waters are enriched with iron and manganese and considered therapeutic.

A trip to Santorini is not complete without visiting Oia - famous not only for the ancient, Minoan site of Akrotiri, but also quite possibly the best vantage point from which to witness the spectacular sunsets.

Overnight: Celebrity Cruises 'Celebrity Constellation' ship

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch;Dinner

Day 8 Ephesus (Kusadasi), Turkey - Docked 7:00am-7:00pm

Once the capital of the Roman province of Asia Minor, this coastal town is now an archeologist's dream. The UNESCO World Heritage ruins of Ephesus impress even those familiar with the world's other ancient cities. Though excavations have been underway for 150 years, only 20 percent of the city has been uncovered.

This former Greek banking and trading centre is rich with historic sites, including the Great Theatre, the Temple of Hadrian, and the Temple of Artemis, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

You will experience a taste of Turkish life by strolling the seafront promenade and the bustling city centre. Walk Marble Street, paved with actual marble slabs, which takes you from downtown to the Temple of Artemis, where you can still see one lone remaining column from this wonder of the ancient world.

Overnight: Celebrity Cruises 'Celebrity Constellation' ship

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch;Dinner

Day 9 Mykonos, Greece - Tendered 7:00am-7:00pm

Mykonos is known for its whitewashed villages sprinkled with blue and jade green. It's also famous for its sophisticated nightlife.

The most popular island in the Cyclades is bustling with activity, awash in beautiful alleyways, and home to alluring sandy beaches.

THE ITINERARY

Overnight: Celebrity Cruises 'Celebrity Constellation' ship

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch;Dinner

Day 10 Athens (Piraeus), Greece - Docked 6:00am-6:00pm

(Please note: For departures on the 7th of July, itineraries for Day 7 and Day 10 have switched)

Athens brought the world drama, history, poetry, and philosophy. Once home to the world's most powerful and civilised empires, Athens is now the world's foremost archaeological playground.

The towering columns of the Parthenon still stand in homage to the virgin goddess Athena. The Parthenon sits atop the Athenian Acropolis and watches over the city where it can be seen from just about anywhere in Athens.

Make it a point to visit the incredible Acropolis Museum on your cruise to Athens (optional shore excursion, bookable directly with the cruise line). The joint effort between two architects, one American and the other Greek, this outstanding building was completed and opened to the public in 2009. It focuses primarily on the Greek period dating to 5 B.C., considered to be the apex of art, culture, and philosophy in ancient Greece, but it also has artefacts from the Bronze, Roman, and Byzantine Ages. There's even a Plexiglas walkway from which an excavated section of an old Athenian neighbourhood can be viewed.

In addition to an abundance of historical riches, modern Athens has plenty on offer—from scenic beaches to restaurants with superb Mediterranean cuisine and bustling central markets.

Overnight: Celebrity Cruises 'Celebrity Constellation' ship

Meals included: Breakfast;Lunch;Dinner

Day 11 Chania (Souda), Crete, Greece - Docked 7:00am-4:00pm

Like many ports in this part of the world, archeological ruins dating back to antiquity are found everywhere. There are also hundreds of gorges around the island and over 1,500 land and sea caves, including Elefantos, noted for its remarkable white and red stalactites.

Throughout the millennia, this harbour city was conquered many times over by Romans, Byzantines, Venetians, and Turks. Chania remains crisscrossed with Ottoman architecture and historic Venetian mansions, many of which have been transformed into quaint shops, inviting cafes, and boutique hotels.

Experience Cretan hospitality and history on your cruise to Chania with a tour to the traditional Village of Vamos, the Karidi Monastery, the Braoudakis winery, and the Folklore Museum (optional shore excursion, bookable directly with cruise line).

Admire the local flora, the ancient homes, and the time-worn old mill, with its 12 arches built in 1862. Take a stroll through Chania's breathtaking Botanical Park, featuring 50 acres of exotic fruit trees, plants, and herbs. You'll learn about the Cretan diet and prepare a traditional dish using local products and extra virgin olive oil (optional shore excursion, bookable directly with cruise line).

A historic Venetian lighthouse still watches over the harbour and local artisans can still be seen crafting their wares in the older streets. However, beyond its rich history, Chania is a beachcomber's paradise, with some of the finest sands and most inviting waters in all of Crete.
