TRIPADEAL TACKLES LAS VEGAS WITH NRL ROUND ONE 2024 PARTNERSHIP

- TripADeal proudly announces it is the preferred travel partner for the Round One 2024 NRL Telstra Premiership matches planned for Las Vegas.
- NRL fans can choose from four exciting TripADeal packages, including one package with direct return QANTAS flights to Las Vegas.
- These packages are the first sports-focused bucket list experiences for online travel agents, TripADeal.

Byron Bay-based online travel agent, TripADeal, have proudly partnered with the National Rugby League (NRL) to provide sports fans an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be in Las Vegas, USA for the Round One double-header in March 2024.

The first sports-focused TripADeal experience, travellers can choose from four exciting packages that takes them straight to the action at Allegiant Stadium, where four blockbuster teams go head-to-head: Manly Sea Eagles vs South Sydney Rabbitohs, followed by match two with Sydney Roosters vs Brisbane Broncos.

TripADeal's Las Vegas packages include a choice of 3, 4 and 5-star hotel stays, a Premium Diamond ticket to the NRL double-header, and for those who choose a flight package, a Qantas direct flight from Sydney or Brisbane, chartered exclusively for NRL fans.

TripADeal's Co-founder and Co-CEO, Norm Black, said of the opportunity, "We're thrilled to be working with the NRL on delivering such a bucket list experience for rugby league fans.

"We've lined up some iconic hotels, got special lounge and bar access at the stadium for our ticket holders and have QANTAS chartering their first direct flights to Las Vegas, filled with some legends of the game. Now that's a bit of Vegas magic."

The Las Vegas packages mark a further backing of the NRL from TripADeal, who have been proud sponsors of the St. George Illawarra Dragons and Manly Sea Eagles since 2018 and 2019 respectively.

TripADeal's Co-founder and Co-CEO, Richard Johnston, said the Las Vegas trips are the first of its event-tailored packages, with similar experiences launching later in the year.
